EnDevCo CEO Says Company Has Reached Revenue Generation Turning Point

EnDevCo, Inc. (OTCBB:ENDE.OB) the Energy Development Company, CEO Chris A. Dittmar, in an Internet interview with Francis Gaskins of StoxRox, said the Company has two significant advantages compared to other growth companies in the energy sector.

“Our production infrastructure is in place, saving the Company and its shareholders tens of millions of investment dollars,” Mr. Dittmar said. “Also, EnDevCo has the ability to rely on its geo-science expertise to reduce risk and improve profit upside.”

In the interview, available at: <http://www.stoxrox.com/endv-b.mp3>, Mr. Dittmar explains why the Company purchased the 12,000 acre Short Junction Field in Oklahoma, which it believes will produce an additional 50 million barrels of oil from the first of four available Hunton reservoirs, the Company’s exploration and production plans for South America, and the quality and depth of its management team.

“From this point forward, the Company will be able to focus on revenue generation, which will make a significant difference for our shareholders,” Mr. Dittmar said.
